5. Book title: Portraits etched in stone; early Jewish settlers, 1682-1831.

Author: David de Sola Pool

Publisher: New York, Columbia University Press [1953]

David De Sola Pool, carefully researched the early New York Jewish settlers. There is a major focus on the Manhattan Chatam Square cemetery of Shaerit Israel, which is the first Jewish cemetery in the United States. An old plaque states it was " Consecrated in the year 1656 when it was described as "outside the city" . During the war of the revolution it was fortified by the Patriots as one of the defenses of the city". David De Sola Pool copied the inscriptions on all the legible stones in his time, and traced the history of each individual interred there.. Many of those monuments are no longer there, and what remains of the cemetery is now open for only a few days a year.
