Gates of Wisdom Congregation

TOWNSEND STREET

RABBI M. S. SIVITZ, Minister

One of the most attractive synagogues in Pittsburgh is the Gates of Wisdom or Shara Torah in Townsend Street. It has had a long and honorable career in this city, and is still destined to play an important part in the religious life of the Hill Section.

Rabbi M. S. Sivitz was called here from Baltimore to take charge of the congregation in 1890, and the congregation grew rapidly. A Methodist church was used as temporary quarters, and thirteen years ago the building was torn down to make way for the present edifice, the home of the Shara Torah Congregation.

Dr. Sivitz has been active in local charitable endeavor, and has been instrumental in the founding of the Talmud Torah, the Montefiore Hospital, Bichur Cholim and others. He is an author of some note.

Poale Zedeck Congregation

CRAWFORD STREET

The Poale Zedeck Congregation was brought into existence under the name of Austro-Hungarian Congregation Poale Zedeck November 6, 1881. At its origination the membership was close to forty, and with the renting of a hall in Grant Street the membership increased. A house on Federal Street was remodeled and used by the congregation for some time. In 1901, the present synagogue building, 129-131-133 Crawford Street was purchased. The interior of the synagogue is now being beautifully decorated.

Mr. Adolph Greenberger has served as principal of the Hebrew School for eighteen years. The Sisterhood was organized in 1911. Mrs. Mendoza is president. A Ohedra-Kadisha branch now consists of 150 members. Mr. Jacob Weinberger is (Gabai) or chairman.

Rabbi Sol Zebalel Friedman, a graduate of the Rabbi Isaac Elchanan Theological Seminary, Baldwin Wallace and Columbia Universities was called to assume the spiritual leadership of the Poale Zedeck Congregation early in 1920. He has already impressed the community with his organization ability and eloquence.
